

HomeLink ART Class Assignment Sheet

January 14th, 2024

Student's name _____

Parents, Look over the work your child has finished this week and check off the assignments that are completed to the family's standard of quality.

REVIEW	In-class Activity	Classroom Lesson
Q2 Week 7 Jan 14:	Continue to work on your reverse color painting challenge. At the end of class, you will turn in your paintings. I will take photos of each one to create a negative of your negative to create a positive! (Next class we will see how the positive prints turned out and how close they match the original!!)	Negative and positive, Understanding colors and their opposites! It forces you learn how to make colors.
Assignment due Tuesday Jan 21:	Your ART COMMISSION is this: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>– Collect magazines, catalogs, and other paper materials that are okay to cut up. (Bring them to next class! You know I have some already, but we need more options to use than what I was able to collect. *Especially if you find some that have inspiring words and cool images.)</li> <li>– Select an image PRINT IT and Bring in that photo/picture to class!!! (Use the examples on the back of this page for inspiration. Choose something that's really cool, or meaningful to you! Use Google image search and Pinterest to find your idea.</li> <li>– Get a gallon size zip lock bag and start adding to it. Bring it to class. Go through the magazines ( and other colored paper materials) you found and start ripping out pages and pieces adding to your bag which colors and images you plan on using for your project.....</li> </ul>

Parents, with your signature below, you verify that you have reviewed the week's-worth of work your child has completed.

Parent signature and date

printed name

This cat below is actually a collage using ceramic tiles!

