REVIEW	In-class Activity		Classroom Lesson
Week 3 Feb 18:	Turn in dead plant collections & drawings on card stock.	Assemble your mushroom dead plant display in class!	Pointillism
Assignment due Tuesday February 25:	HOMEWORK: 1.) Read this short article, there will be a QUIZ next week! --&gt; https://www.riseart.com/guide/2582/a-brief-history-of-pointillism 2.) Pointillism Artwork: Choose a subject for your artwork, a landscape, a portrait, or an animal (and bring it to class!) Whatever picture you choose, you will use it to fill an 8x11" paper for your work. I will be looking for effort, detail and thoroughness in this project to get credit. *You can do this project with color (pens or colored pencils) or keep it black and white using your ink pens provided in class, if the subject would look good in black and white, such as the example on the back of this page. If choosing a project done with color, keep in mind that by placing colors next to each other can have a mixing effect when standing farther away and help create interesting colorful contrasts!  Leave space between your dots. They might be closer together or farther apart depending on the value you're trying to achieve.
